

THOMPSON DECLARED GUILTY OF LARCENY

Cash Bond Refused by Justice Anderson.

AWAITS SENTENCE IN JAIL

Diamond Thief Convicted in Criminal Court of Stealing Brooch From Local Jeweler.

Albert Thompson was yesterday convicted in Criminal Court No. 1 of grand larceny. He was remanded to jail by Justice Anderson to await sentence.

The specific charge against Thompson is that on December 18, 1901, he entered the jewelry establishment of Galt Bros., of Pennsylvania Avenue, and stole a diamond brooch valued at $60. There is another indictment pending against Thompson, in which he is accused of the larceny of about $250 worth of jewelry from Robert Leding.

When called on to defend himself Thompson declined to go on the stand and testify. The testimony for the prosecution showed that Thompson went to Galt's jewelry store on the morning of December 18. He said he wanted to buy a piece of jewelry, and asked to be shown some brooches. A tray of diamond brooches was shown him. After inspecting them he told the clerk that he would rather purchase a pair of sleeve buttons. He examined a pair of buttons, and after making a deposit of $5 on them said he would return for them in the afternoon.

About 2 p. m. of the same day he returned and stated that he had changed his mind about the purchase of the cuff buttons, and asked to again be shown the brooches. While Thompson was handling the jewelry one of the clerks in the store noticed that he concealed a brooch in his left hand. Word was passed by the clerk and a policeman soon appeared upon the scene.

Thompson was accused of the theft of the brooch. He denied it. He was searched. While this was done the brooch fell to the floor at his feet. He claimed that it had accidentally become entangled in his coat sleeve.

Thompson gave a $2,000 cash bond for his appearance. Justice Anderson yesterday refused to release him from custody upon renewal of the bond. Assistant District Attorney Mullooney appeared for the Government.

IMPROVEMENTS ORDERED.

The District Commissioners yesterday ordered that the intersection of Twelfth and K Streets southeast and the intersecting streets be improved and adjusted, and that 1,100 feet of 12-inch water main be laid in Bladensburg Road, north from the south line of Clark Mill's estate to Twenty-Eighth Street.

BURIAL OF R. M. LINTON.

The body of R. M. Linton, who was drowned in Chesapeake Bay near Bay Ridge, October 13, was found Wednesday. The body has been brought to the city by his brother, W. A. Linton, and buried in Congressional Cemetery.

CAPITAL POLICEMEN WORKING OVERTIME

Men Putting in Four Hours Extra Every Day on Account of "Home Voters."

Owing to the large number of Capitol policemen who have gone home to do some electioneering in their respective Congress districts the number left on duty has been so reduced that in order to have the big building properly patrolled the force on duty has been divided into day and night shifts, each policeman being required to do twelve hours duty instead of eight.

In other words, from now until the absent policemen return the force on duty will put in four extra hours each day without extra compensation. The policemen doing this additional work are not complaining, because the hope to be remembered in the appropriation bill which carries the item for the extra month's pay.

WAGON COLLIDES WITH CAPITAL TRACTION CAR

Both Vehicles Smashed and L. P. Solyn Slightly Injured—A Second Accident.

A collision occurred about 6 o'clock yesterday morning at the corner of Pennsylvania Avenue and Ninth Street, between a wagon driven by Walter Brown and a Capital traction car. The car and wagon were injured somewhat, and L. P. Solyn, employed at the Congressional Library, was slightly hurt. The horse and wagon were the property of Taylor Wade, of 911 Ninth Street.

A collision also occurred about 8:30 o'clock between a Brightwood Avenue car and a wagon driven by Calvin Mullins, of Montgomery county, Md. The wagon was damaged to the extent of $50, and its contents, consisting of eggs, butter and produce, was thrown out. The damage to the produce was estimated at $50. Mullins was injured about the legs, and his companion, Marshall Bowman, was slightly cut about the head. Both refused medical attention. John P. Weaver was conductor and Zach Hawkins motorman of the car.

ADDITIONAL CHARGE AGAINST R. E. FENNELL

The police authorities have been in correspondence with the bureau of other cities with the view of locating the stolen jewelry found in the possession of R. E. Fennell, arrested in Baltimore for the robbery of the Raleigh and Arlington hotels of this city.

Captain Boardman, of the Detective Bureau, yesterday received a letter from Francis O'Neil, superintendent of the Chicago police force, in which he identifies a hunting case gold watch stolen from R. T. Byron at the Grand Pacific Hotel last September, and says that $700 in money was stolen from Mr. Byron at the same time. He asks co-operation in trying to locate the property.

Chief O'Neil says that he has communicated with Mr. Byron and has asked him to come to Chicago to assist in the conviction of the robber there, if the charges in Washington fall of proof.
